CONTRABAND OPIUM ON BOARD THE "PEMPTOS"

The Straits Times says: - Another case, similar to the recent Kriemhild contraband opium case, occurred on Wednesday afternoon. the 3rd inst., when about $2,000 worth of illicitchandoo was seized on board the German atcomer Pemptos from Hongkong to Batavia, which arrived at Singapore on the morning of the same day. The case, which is rather peculiar, tends to show the great cunning that is displayed by the people who attempt to smuggle in excissable goods to the detriment of the Op um Farmer. As far as we have been able to find out it appears that the Pemptos is chartered by a Java agency to run between Hongkong and Java. Just previous to leaving Hougkong on the present trip, a Chinain in went on board and handed into the care of the Chief Officer a case marked "Edling B tavis," which the Chinamen said was to be kept in a cool place where it would not be demaged, as it contained very valuable silk. The how was duly entered on the manifest as a box of wilk consigned to Batavia, and the Officer placed it in one of the energ cabins under look and key. As the steamer was about getting under weigh, the Captain was informed that there was a case of opium ou board that was going to Singapore, as it could not go on place. The Captain, it is alleged made unanccessfully some attempt to find the opium and came to the conclusion that the box was stowed away with the other cargo down in the hold. digs before the Pomytos arrived at Singspore, her agents received a talegram from a Chinaman in Batavia-asking that a certain box. consigned to Batavia, on board the Pemptos should be landed at Singapore, as the consignee had left to come here. The contents of this telegram were made known to the Captain on the ship's arrival, and it was ther found that the box therein referred to wis i lentical box that was in the orbin, and consigned to "Edling, Batavia." The Captai suspicions were aroused, and he communicated is suspicious to the steamer's arouts (Mesure Boustead & Co.) who in turn informed the opium Farmer. The box was opened, said found in contain prepared opium or chandoc, done no in longated bladders, similar to German sausages. valued altogether at about $2,000. The Entiner did not intend to make a charge against the antain, but, with the object of showing that the case in question had been confiscated, the agent we are informed expressed a desire to have charge made against the Cap tub. Accordingly bout 5 p.m. on the 4th inst. Captain Ule Johannsen was brought before Mr. Hare: un charged first, with importing into the Settlement a quantity of chandoo under Sec. 7 of Ord. 87 and secondly, with having the suid chandoo in his oustody, not having purchased the same from the Opin a Farmer during the current year, under Sec. 13 of Ocd. 4 of 1870.
